Franchot to Present Schaefer Award to Somerset Nonprofit Founder

April Alexander created nonprofit to help former inmates

WHO: Comptroller Peter Franchot

WHAT: Comptroller Franchot on Wednesday morning will present the 2021 William Donald Schaefer Helping People Award for Somerset County to April Alexander, founder and CEO of Positive Reinforcements. The nonprofit was created to reduce recidivism by offering resources and mentorship to former inmates.

The William Donald Schaefer Helping People Award was created to honor the legacy of public service exemplified by former Governor, Comptroller and Baltimore City Mayor William Donald Schaefer. One winner is selected annually from each of Maryland's 24 jurisdictions. This is the 10th year that Comptroller Franchot has presented Schaefer awards to worthy recipients throughout Maryland.

After his award presentation, Comptroller Franchot will attend the 45th annual J. Millard Tawes Crab & Clam Bake in Crisfield.
