WHO: Comptroller Peter Franchot

WHAT: Comptroller Franchot kicks off his afternoon in Baltimore at the US Lacrosse national headquarters in Sparks. He will tour the Hall of Fame and Museum, and present a proclamation to CEO Steve Stenersen and his team for their tireless efforts to fuel the sport's growth and prioritize safety, training and ethics. The facility is home to the Men's and Women's National teams and welcomes more than 26,000 visitors annually.

Mr. Franchot next will head to Eileen Fisher, where he will present a proclamation to manager Kathleen Miller recognizing the shop's economic contributions to the community. Eileen Fisher is an eco-friendly, sustainable national women's clothier founded in 1984 that sources their natural, organic products from sustainable partners.

Finally, the Comptroller heads to B.C Brewery, where he will honor owner Rich Mak and brewmaster Jim Wagner for their innovative efforts to create a neighborhood brewery at the forefront of the industry. B.C Brewery opened in 2018 offering the very first self-service taproom in the state. Since then, they have forged a relatively uncharted path by offering GLCO certified, gluten-free beers.
