Franchot to Present Proclamations to Two Baltimore County Businesses

First stop is part of annual Shop Maryland Energy promotional tour

WHO: Comptroller Peter Franchot

WHAT: Comptroller Peter Franchot will visit Cummins Appliance in Baltimore County on Friday morning as part of his annual Shop Maryland Energy tour and thank owner, Howard Cummins, for the family's longstanding service to customers in Baltimore, Howard, Carroll, Harford and Anne Arundel counties. Nathan Cummins started the business 92 years ago in as Cummins Hardware near Park Circle. The emphasis on quality products and exemplary customer service keeps generations of families coming back to Cummins.

The Comptroller then will travel to Owings Mills, where he will present a proclamation to Eddie Wingrat, owner of Flower & Fancies. The business has provided high quality flower arrangements for weddings, hotels and hospitals with exceptional customer service and contributions to the local community since 1971.
