Franchot to Speak with Cambridge Students on Finance, Talbot Business Leaders on Economy

Chamber lunch topics include state's economy, tax season, legislative session

WHO: Comptroller Peter Franchot

WHAT: Mr. Franchot will spend Wednesday on the Eastern Shore, beginning at Maple Elementary School in Cambridge, where he will speak with third graders about the importance of being financially literate and explain how savings benefit the economy. Since 1987, Junior Achievement of the Eastern Shore, which is conducting the event, has partnered with business owners, elected officials and schools to help children build sound financial management skills to carry with them for life.

The Comptroller then will travel to Easton, where he will give keynote remarks at the Talbot County Chamber of Commerce luncheon focused on the state's economy, the start of the legislative session and the approaching start of tax season .

WHEN: Wednesday, January 15, 2020

WHERE: 11 a.m. Noon
