Statement from Comptroller Peter Franchot

ANNAPOLIS, Md. (October 5, 2020) - Comptroller Peter Franchot announces that Len Foxwell will no longer serve as chief of staff as of today and will separate from the agency at the end of the month.

Comptroller Franchot thanks Mr. Foxwell for his 12 years of dedicated service and contributions to the Comptroller's Office and the State of Maryland, and wishes him the best in his future endeavors.

Emmanuel Welsh will assume the role of acting chief of staff. Mr. Welsh has served as deputy chief of staff since 2016.
