Comptroller Franchot Extends Tax Deadlines for Anne Arundel Businesses Impacted by Tornado

Motor fuel tax license holders also granted temporary relief

ANNAPOLIS, Md. (September 2, 2021) — In the aftermath of a tornado ravaging parts of Edgewater and Annapolis on Wednesday afternoon, Comptroller Peter Franchot today announced extended due dates for a variety of tax and motor fuel payments for businesses and emergency responders in Anne Arundel County affected by the storm.

“As residents and business owners pick up the pieces from this devastating storm, we want to make sure paying taxes isn’t an additional burden during this stressful time,” Comptroller Franchot said.

The Comptroller’s Office has extended the due dates for monthly business filers for August activity as follows:

Tax Type Date	Original Due Date	Extended Due
Sales & Use	September 20	October 20
Admission & Amusement	September 10	October 10
Withholding	September 15	October 15
Alcohol	September 10	October 10
Beer	September 15	October 15

Additionally, Maryland Motor Fuel Tax license holders in Anne Arundel County have a one-month extension to file their August 2021 motor fuel tax returns; they are now due by October 31, 2021. A waiver of interest and penalties will be granted to licensees who file and pay by the new due date. Certain IFTA (International Fuel Tax Agreement) requirements are also temporarily waived for shippers and carriers of essential emergency relief supplies, or to those that are providing restoration of utilities to the affected area.

Anne Arundel County businesses with questions about motor fuel extensions can email Chuck Elm at culm@marylandtaxes.gov. For other tax-related questions, individuals may call 410-260-7980 (from Central Maryland) or 1-800-MD-TAXES, or email taxhelp@marylandtaxes.gov. Businesses may call the Tax Practitioner Hotline at 410-260-7424.
