

Media Advisory

Comptroller Franchot to Speak at Schaefer's 100th Birthday Celebration

Event to honor the public service legacy of the late councilman, mayor, governor and comptroller

WHO: Governor Larry Hogan
Comptroller Peter Franchot
Mayor Brandon Scott
City Council President Nick Mosby
Roger Hartley, Dean, University of Baltimore College of Public Affairs
Ann Cotten, Director, UB Schaefer Center for Public Policy

WHAT: Comptroller Franchot on Tuesday will join local and state dignitaries, community members, civic leaders and others to commemorate the 100th birthday of William Donald Schaefer, who served four terms as a Baltimore City councilman (one as president), four terms as mayor, and two terms each as Maryland governor and state comptroller Schaefer, who was born on Nov. 2, 1921, served in public office from 1955 to 2011 with only a four-year hiatus from 1995 to 1999. He passed away in 2011.

Coordinated by the Schaefer Center for Public Policy at the University of Baltimore, Governor Hogan and Mayor Scott will proclaim November 2nd as William Donald Schaefer Day in the state and city. Comptroller Franchot will present a proclamation in recognition of the event.

WHEN: Tuesday, November 2, 2021
3 P.M.

WHERE: William Donald Schaefer Statue
401 Light St.
Baltimore, MD 21202

CONTACT: Alan Brody: abrody@marylandtaxes.gov

Stay connected with the Comptroller of Maryland:

